Cooking Classes

Il Cacciatore invites your conference group to participate in a fun, hands-on gnocchi making cooking class and dinner. Your team of 8-12 colleagues will enjoy an evening of good Italian food and wine in a relaxed and friendly atmosphere. The evening is hosted by Mark and Noreen Gottaas, owners of Hermitage Lodge and Il Cacciatore.

Chef Michael Haines will lead you through a step-by-step, hands on, gnocchi making class. Following the class, sit down to a five course dinner with your gnocchi making team members. The dinner features a cooking demonstration by Chef Michael Haines using the gnocchi you have just made. Gather round the demonstration table and be amazed at how easy it is to make outstanding gnocchi dishes using fresh and easily obtainable ingredients. Michael is always happy to answer your culinary questions and offer tips or advice to make you look good in the kitchen.

Doug Conway is a respected journalist with AAP...

'I attended a cooking class/dinner where the food was terrific and the wine outstanding, but I tended to neglect both because the company and the flow of the conversation was so absorbing....'

Kerry writes....

'As lovers of Italian food we not only learnt to make the best gnocchi, but had a wonderful dinner and made some new friends as well. Thanks for the terrific night!'
